Lahore: October 30.

The District Magistrate of Lahore has issued an order under the Defence of India Rules directing all booksellers in Lahore District ing possessing map of India showing railways (one inch = 80 miles) specially prepared for "Newmans Indian Bradshaw" to surrender all such maps in their possession to him within a fortnight. Private individuals and institutions in Lahore District have also been directed to report to the District Magistrate within a fortnight if they possess such maps. Non-compliance with the order is punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years or with fine or with both.

Ahmedabad: October 30.

Police opened fire at two places today todisperse crowds which threw stones. Two shots were fired which however injured none. Eleven processions were taken out which were dispersed by the Police. One postman was assaulted and relieved of his bag. Two municipal Girls Schools were stoned in one of which slight damage was done.

Peshawar: October 30.

Eighty-eight Red Shirt volunteers were arrested in Peshawar on Wednesday while 150 have been detained in Mardan according to a report. Three businessmen who have been arrested in Peshawar under the Defence of India Rules have now been released.

Lahore: October 30.

Supplementary estimates aggregating to Rs.1,88,00,000 for measures mostly necessitated by war have been placed before the Punjab Assembly by Sir Manoharlal, Finance Minister, and passed after a brief discussion this afternoon. These include a provision for wheat storage scheme and improvements in conditions of service of members of Civic Guard. Other proposals are formation of security intelligence staff in the districts to forestall and detech fifth column activities, creation of armed reserve police and purchase of about 1,200 cycles in order to increase the mobility of police without depending on motor transport in view of petrol rationing. Opposition members took the opportunity to ventilate the grievances by Congress prisoners and made certain suggestions for the extension of facilities to them. Sir Sikandar assured that any employment to which Essential Services (Maintenance) Ordinance, 1941 applies.

Chittagong: October 30.

Recent enemy airraid on Chittagong did not affect the normal life of the town in any way. Public are going about as usual in their occupations with remarkable coolness. They took shelter when enemy aircraft appeared above the town and A.R.P. staff are vigilant.

Calcutta: October 30.

Three Indian soldiers recently were involved in an affray with a number of people in a certain village in Bengal. Soldiers were tried before Sessions Court on charges of causing death to two persons by use of firearms in their possession. They were found guilty and sentenced to ten years R.I. under Section 304 I.P.C. and three years R.I. under Section 335, sentences to run concurrently.

Attempts were made this (Friday) afternoon to burn letter boxes inside two post offices in the City. A few letters are stated to have been damaged in Kalnas (Burdwan). Dak bungalow at Kusumgram under police station Nanteswar was gutted by fire, according to information received here. Six arrests were made.

In Egypt our ground forces have held the former ground of the axi and defeated all counterattacks of the enemy. The British 8th army have mainly consolidated and enlarged their territorial gains all of w ic have been retained. More prisoners have been taken. war correspondent with the 8th army says our infantry advanced inthe northern escarpment and have defeated on Thursday a panzer unit which counterattacked to regain lost positions. Our main body attacked in turn and yielded none of the ground they had gained previously.

Our Armoured forces on Thursday morning had some minor engagements with the enemy and Reuters special correspondent in the Egyptian battle zone says aircraft co tinued to take part on a big inthe main battle. They carried out number of sorties and provided very useful in what is now described sniping at armour. In this job the 8th army have had initialsuccess. One british unit knocked out large number axis tanks and a frontline despatch says that though the enemy has succeeded in slowing down british advance they received severalhard knocks. In one engagements with the axis forces several german andItalia units were completely wiped out and deserters came to our lines. In the air alidad long range fighte s strapped enemy landing grounds lorries an supply lines. American fighter aircraft continued their operations over battle area. Fighter opposition of theenemy was rather larger than usual and inthe first five days American planes shot down 22 axis aircraft for loss of two of their own.

In Madagascar East African troops entered most important town south of Madagascar on Thursday. They are continuing to advance southwar Communique from general Platt G.O.C. East Africa says our troops entered the town at 4 22 o'clock on Thursday afternoon. In the last few weeks it was the capital of the Vichy Governor General. Our troops suffered ve light casualties and took 440 prisoners including two colonels who were in command of second light infantry division.The communique ad

Supplement to the Midnight Moscow communique gives details of Thursdays fighting. Germans continued to attack the defences of Stalingrad but gained no further ground and all the latest attacks have been beaten back. germans losing 1200 men killed together with 8 tanks knocked out 6 artillery batteries destroyed and more than 18 aircraft shot down. Northwest of Stalingrad in local fighting soviet units entered into german trenches and wiped out one enemy company of infantry. In another sector russians killed 180 Rumanians including in battles of local importance. Earlier reports said germans have made no further progress in Northern industrial belt of Stalingrad although they threw in wave after wave of fresh troops. North and south of the city Marshal Timoshecoes army have made further progress after attacking enemy flanks. Reuters special correspondent in a despatch from Moscow says germans in this sector are employing as many divisions as they pouring into Stalingrad itself. In the Caucasus sector soviet troops today overcame stiff enemy resitance in the area northeast of Tuapse and forged ahead. In two days intensive fighting in this sector russians have killed more than 800 germans In the Eastern Caucasus soviet troops in the area of Malchek were engaged in defensive actions and in the face of numerically superior enemy forces russians have had to withdraw to new positions. In the Baltic Sea Units of Russian navy have sunk more german supply ships totalling twenty thousand tons.

London; October 30

In the west British aircraft carried out two more daylight raids today over occupied France and Holland. Air Ministry communique says in the Mediterranean british spitfires on patrol attacked attacked a goods train near ostend and enemy supply ship near Zeebrugge. In the afternoon mosquito bombers bombed enemy air field and a factory in Holland. Axis ship off the coast was also successfully attacked.

Washington; October 30

Japanese naval forces have been withdrawn from the Solomons. Announcing this xxxxx Col.Knox Navy Secretary says first round is now over. We are awaiting the second to xxxx begin . At the end of the first round American forces in Guadalcanar Island are supremely holding to their positions as ever before. There has been no interruption with our communications and our supplies got through.

Details of the fighting around Guadalcanar Island up to Thursday night are given in Navy Communique f. It says on Wednesday morning land activity over the Island was confined to small skirmishes between american and enemy patrols. United States air force based in Guadalcanar have had to bomb and strap enemy positions to the west of the air field. Inthe Afternoon American fighters destroyed two enemy seaplanes on Rikata bay. During the past week twelve Japanese light tanks have been knocked out. Early on Thursday two Japanese bombers attacked our position in Guadalcanar but all bombs fell into the water and no damage caused. On Thursday night United States motor torpedo boat attacked enemy destroyer believed to be engaged in reinforcing and supplying Japanese troops onthe Island. Atleast two torpedo hits were scored onthe Destroyer and when last seen it was at a standstill.

Melbourne: October 30

In New Guinea according to an Agency despatch Japanese forces are putting up stub born resistance against Australian troops inthe owen Stanley mountains. Enemymachineguns and armoured positions are heavily concealed sometimes making it impossible to distinguish. Japanese have also been standing up well to bayonet charges one of these charges has opened its way to Alola.

He wants not merely wishywashy exhortations but demand which Britain could not ignore. We agree with him India makes problem which concerns United Nations hardly less than us. It is not enough that Indians should give us advice on Government of their country. Britain must transfer power to them. Excuse that Indians must take next step is not even plausible. How can they while we refuse access to imprisoned congress leaders. Rajagopalachariar has his plan before us here in England. We wish we could be sure facilities and welcome would be extended to this able and courageous man. His plan errs - if it has fault - on the side over-elaboration but in essentials stresses what must certainly be done and done without delay. He has confident belief congress and Muslim League would accept the plan. We owe to India ourselves and United Nations to give him chance.

In the past 24 hours defenders of Stalingrad have thrown back tank and infantry attacks in the northern factory areas of the city. Germans despite their setbacks and enormous losses continue to throw in more men and material. Outside the city russians are slowly pressing on against axis flanks. Enemy has concentrated large forces in this sector and russian defenders are meeting with stiff opposition. In the Western Caucasus soviet troops on the Black Sea coast have recaptured several inhabited localities and strong points north of Tuapse. In spite of determined enemy opposition russians are slowly moving forward. In the Eastern Caucasus new battle is now developing round Malchek and heavily outnumbered soviet forces have had to fall back to new positions.
